January Party Revisited

Our First Party of 2012 attracted over 100 members and guests to dance, eat, socialize, and generally have a ball and of course renew membership for 2012. DJ Billy Waldrep once again kept everyone moving with tunes from slow and smooth to lively and quick with an occasional line dance thrown in so all had some reason to "Get Up Off That Seat" at some point and enjoy themselves. Thanks to the many members who brought appetizers and desserts to complement the pizza provided by the Club. Laurie and Stan Rochester along with Carolyn Wingate, Bill Altman and Dot Smith did a great job decorating and setting the mood for "Re-Up" with banners, flyers and even a Re-Up decorated cake. Also thanks to Chuck Johnson and Dot Smith for having the Re-Up table for members so organized that there was not a back up all night, maybe they could give the DMV some pointers! And thanks to those who take a turn at the sign in desk, handle the 50/50, or help in some way to make these parties happen and run smoothly each month.

Mid Winter SOS

Phyllis Drake represented R&B at this years' ACSC meeting at North Myrtle Beach in January and presented a thorough report to the Board at February meeting, Thanks Phyllis!

Electric Storm

A large delegation of R&B members recently traveled down to Clemson for a weekend of shagging. Electric City Shag Club always throws a good party.

Children Shelter Benefit

The Fantastic Shakers did a great job entertaining folks from across the upstate at Carolina Country Club on February 9. The event was promoted by Beach Bob and featured our own Kathy and Steve Day teaching the basic shag and intermediate steps to attendees. The Days are wonderful Ambassadors for R&B and their promotion of the Shag dance extends beyond Spartanburg to places near and far.

ACSC/Winter Workshop

Chuck Johnson and Dot Smith will represent our Club at the workshop on February 26-28. This event is hosted by the Beaufort Shag Club in Hilton Head, SC.

February Board Meeting

If Board meeting attendance continues to increase (19 at recent meeting) we may have to find a DJ and break out some music and have a party. I'm not sure what reaction the Library folks would have to that! Seriously though, we have such a dedicated group working for the Club, it makes a meeting somewhat pleasurable instead of a chore.

Learn the State Dance

We are working on tentative plans for a Shag dance workshop for sometime this Year. The last time we did this in 2009 over 400 folks showed up on a rainy night to get a taste of the Shag. I regularly have people inquire about R&B, our parties, and shag lessons. This is a great opportunity to introduce our friends to what we already enjoy. This also coincides with the stated objective of R&B to "preserve, promote, and honor the shag". So if you're interested in this event let us know how you would like to help

February Party

Since February is the month of romance, Feel the Love and come on over to the Spartanburg Shrine Club, Saturday February 18 to our Party. DJ Pat Patterson will be playing and I heard someone mention something about a monkey. I am curious to see what monkeys and music have to do with shagging. Members, please consider bringing an appetizer or dessert for members and guests to enjoy a snack while shagging and socializing.

See you at the Dance!

Party Reminders: We strive to have fun, worry free parties. We don't want you to stress about what special "food" you have to prepare so, Hey, it's a 'snack' not dinner. Just bring your favorite appetizer/snack food and come ready to dance and have a great time socializing.

Happy Birthday!
