Letter from the President:

As I am writing this letter just as SOS has begun. Those of you who are attending, I hope you had a safe trip down and are partying hard. Thanks to each one of you that sold or brought Fun Monday tickets. Again this year we sold our allotment of 100 tickets. Maybe this is a sign that we will sell the winning ticket again! Last year Stan Sanders sold the winning ticket. These are the types of achievements that give R&B Shag Club recognition. We went down to the wire before we sold out. With a lot of help; we were able to sell about 40 tickets at Wild Wings prior to the deadline. Thanks to everyone who helped sell tickets.

August Party

What a great party! The Black and White theme was fantastic. Black and white filled the Shrine Club. The music was provided by Bobby Vaughn. As usual, the dance floor stayed full and the music was excellent. I want to thank Jerry and Dianne Easler for decorating. R&B, you turned out in big numbers as we had 151 shaggers. This just shows what a great club we have.

Skylyn Place

We met and danced for the patrons at Skylyn Place. This has become an annual event for R&B. To see the smiles and the dancers that join us was an afternoon to remember. Thanks to each member who took time on this Sunday afternoon to be part of something special. A special thank you to Chuck Allen, who furnished the music. Great job Chuck.

September Party

Our next party will be September 27 at 7:30. Jeff Foster will be our DJ. We will have two themes that night:

1. Crock Pot challenge: The rules are very simple. If you can cook it in a crock pot it is eligible for cash prizes. 1st $100; 2nd $50; 3rd $25 There will be guest judges.

Hopefully the mayor of Spartanburg will be one of the judges. So bring your specialty to the challenge. Please try to have all food there by 8:00. The food line will not be open until after the judging is complete.

2. Western night will be our theme. Make sure to wear your western attire and dance the shag with Jeff.

Board request

The board met and has a special request for our members. Each party we have food tables for the enjoyment of guest and members. Please understand that this is not intended to be a meal. But, we need help from you to increase these snacks and desserts. Again we thank you for your help and understanding. The board knows you will rise to the occasion.
